SEVENTEEN soldiers from a Scots battalion based in Canterbury have tested positive for cocaine whilst on a stopover in Mexico.

The disgraced troops from the 5th Battalion Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, based at Howe Barracks, tested positive for the Class A drug during a week-long break in Cancun. They were on their way back from a gruelling six-week jungle training operation in Belize.

They now face dishonourable discharge from the army.

An army spokesman told Yourcanterbury: "Disciplinary action has been taken against all of them, but normally under these circumstances anyone caught taking or selling illegal drugs would be discharged."

The soldiers were screened two days before returning to Britain in an unannounced drugs test. Traces of cocaine showed up after the results came back last Friday.

Drug testing teams visited the troops and took samples from everyone. The 17 who tested positive were all private soldiers, and it is expected they will face discharge within the next few weeks.

An army spokesman said the guilty soldiers have brought shame on their regiment, although critics say drug use is rife amongst squaddies.

More than 1,100 soldiers have been discharged for offences involving Class A drugs since January 2006. Critics have said the army's drug support services are not doing enough to deal with the problem. The 500-strong Argylls are one of the most famous units in the army, and have seen action in Iraq and Afghanistan.

The army spokesman added: "Drugs use is incompatible with life in the armed forces and is not tolerated."

Confession attempt thief turned away

■ BY IAN READ

A SUPERMARKET supervisor stealing cash from her employers tried three times to confess to police – only to be told to come back later.

The guilt-ridden Sainsbury's worker was turned away by Canterbury officers when she tried to shop herself – and when she reported to Herne Bay police station, there was no-one there.

Emma Lucas, 31, was skimming cash from the company by faking refunds and pocketing the cash.

Miss Lucas, of St Louis Grove, Herne Bay, plucked up the courage to confess to stealing £3,185 only to be turned away from Canterbury and Herne Bay police stations.

When police finally believed her story Miss Lucas was arrested.

She appeared before Canterbury magistrates where the bizarre story unfolded.

Chris Mayo, prosecuting, said the internet sales supervisor had worked loyally at the Chestfield branch for 14 years without a hint of trouble.

When police questioned her she said she took the money because she was being blackmailed.

He said she had every opportunity to confess her crimes earlier.

Kath Wallen, defending, told the court her client had tried to confess.

THEFT: A Sainsbury's supervisor stole over £3,000 through fake refunds

She said: "She went to the police to explain the situation to them. She went to Canterbury where staff told her to go to Herne Bay on August 27. When she got to the station, there was nobody there. When she went back the following day there was nobody there who could deal with her. She finally explained what was happening and was arrested."

"She accepts responsibility for her actions. She feels ashamed because she feels she's let her colleagues and friends down. She has put herself through the mill over this."

Giving Miss Lucas an 80 day prison sentence, suspended for 12 months, chairman of the magistrates, David Ellerby, also gave her a year long supervision order as well as 180 hours unpaid community work. She was also ordered to pay £60 costs.

He said: "This was a large amount of money and was a planned deception. You were an employee who was in a senior position of trust."

Fury over plans to turn leisure site into homes

Planet Lazer and Studio 41 face closure

PLANS to scrap one of the city's few leisure facilities has sparked an outcry from teenagers and gay groups.

The home of Planet Lazer and the Studio 41 nightclub is under threat as part of a plan by developers to demolish the popular complex in St George's Place.

The proposal includes the building of 57 homes and less than 1,500 square metres of leisure and office space.

But leaseholders and patrons of the current businesses are up in arms over the plans, which they argue would further diminish Canterbury's already limited leisure provision, and lead to more than 80 job losses.

Objections to the plans have come not only from the Canterbury district, but further afield.

Among the regular nights affected by the decision would be one of Kent's few gay club nights – Girls and Boys – staged at Studio 41 on a Saturday.

Objectors have branded plans to redevelop the venue as "discrimination against the gay community".

■ BY GARETH ARNOLD

In letters to the council, objectors argued: "It is the only venue in Canterbury where people can truly express themselves and mix without aggression and discrimination."

"Without it, there will be nowhere else for the gay community to go."

But the gay community are not the only ones speaking out against the proposal.

Young fans of Planet Lazer have also made written objections to the plans, claiming there is nowhere else in Canterbury that caters for youngsters in the same way. They say the popular game provides family entertainment the city is otherwise lacking.

The proprietors of Studio 41 have suggested that closing the complex "will further disenfranchise youngsters, leaving them nowhere to go but to cause trouble on the streets".

In their report, council officers noted: "A significant number of objectors raised concern that the loss of the venue would significantly reduce the amount of leisure facilities in the city with little hope of it being replaced."

"There is also the feeling the loss of Planet Lazer would cause an increase in antisocial behaviour as there would be no leisure facility aimed specifically at teenage children in the city."

The council have also been criticised for failing to consult properly. In the original draft proposal, there was a clause safeguarding the leisure facilities housed in the complex. But this clause was removed in later drafts without further public consultation, contrary to the council's own local plan.

But many people living around the venue have backed the proposals, claiming more houses and less leisure space would be preferable. A meeting to discuss the proposals was due to be held last night.

Robbery clues

POLICE have released information regarding the identity of the violent robbers they believe assaulted a man with a claw hammer and stole thousands of pounds worth of jewellery.

Officers have released the registration number of the car used by thieves who held up Mappin and Webb in Rose Lane, Canterbury.

The three men took watches, rings and necklaces from the shop at 3.45pm on Wednesday, October 31.

They used hammers to smash display cabinets before escaping, hitting a man, who they believed to be telephoning the police, over the head as they fled.

Harbour board pours water on developers' designs for quay side

ALL three controversial proposals to redevelop Whitstable harbour's south quay have been rejected by the Whitstable Harbour Board.

At a meeting on Friday, board members decided none of the plans submitted by Allied Land, Olympian Homes and Shepherd Neame met the board's strategic objectives for the harbour.

As a result, the board is recommending to a meeting of the full city council on Thursday, November 29, none of the three schemes be selected.

Canterbury council will make the final decision.

A joint working party comprising members of both the harbour board and the council's executive has been assessing the development proposals over the last few weeks.

After detailed scrutiny of the plans, the conclusion not to recommend any of the options was unanimous.

Council leader, John Gilbey, and chairman of Whitstable Harbour Board, Michael Dixey, said they were both disappointed at the outcome but have stressed that the harbour will not be standing still.

In a joint statement, they said: "We see the harbour as a vital resource for the town that is cherished by local people. Despite the disappointment in not finding a suitable developer, we will work on new ideas to enhance and improve the south quay."

Peter Banbury, chairman of Whitstable Harbour Watch, which has spearheaded a local campaign against the proposals, collecting a 17,000 petition in the process, said he was "delighted" by the decision.

He said: "This is a good outcome and reminds us of the board's promise to listen to community views. But there is more to do."

"We agree with the harbour board development of appropriate harbour sites is necessary and that increased income will be required to finance future harbour works."

"All development must be guided by values such as the distinctiveness and maritime nature of Whitstable, as well as being financially sound. Additionally, development must complement existing town commerce and amenity."

Crook pinches toys for food

ALAN Tanner stole more than £250 worth of Thomas the Tank Engine toys to buy food a court was told.

Tanner, 30, of St Andrew's Close, Whitstable stole the toys after he had been kicked out by his girlfriend's parents.

Chris Mayo, prosecuting at Canterbury Magistrates Court, said he was seen acting suspiciously by staff at Fenwick.

They saw him put toys into a bag and grabbed him outside the store.

Debbie Pizzey, defending, said Tanner was a drug user and had been living at his girlfriend's parents' home until she was sent to prison on drugs offences.

She said: "He was out on the street with nowhere to go and no money to buy food. He thought by stealing the toys he would have money for food and accommodation."

Tanner was given a conditional discharge for 12 months and ordered to pay £60 costs.

Landmark gets clocked by jobs

VANDALS have smashed St George's Clock in Canterbury city centre putting it out of action for weeks.

The damage was done about two weeks ago, when a brick was thrown at the clock, denting the face, bending the hands and dislodging some of the internal workings.

Council spokesman Rob Davies said: "We believe someone has deliberately thrown a large brick or something similar at the clock."

"Initial investigations revealed there could be further extensive internal damage, so a specialist clock smith has been called in."

"We hope to have it resolved within two weeks if we can."

Town's green lung faces a tight squeeze

■ BY GARETH ARNOLD

PLANS for a 'green' cycle path have enraged Whitstable householders who have formed a pressure group to block the project.

The proposal, still in the planning stage, forms part of the Connect2 project which aims to build hundreds of miles of cycle paths at 79 locations around England.

Connect2 is organised by Sustrans, the UK's leading sustainable transport charity, who were brought in by the Crab and Winkle Trust, a local body formed in 1997 with the aim of bringing the Whitstable to Canterbury link back into use.

The Crab and Winkle Trust claim the route will provide a healthy and green way to get about, but protestors say the plans involve the destruction of Whitstable's 'green lung', a band of trees which runs along the route of the old Canterbury to Whitstable railway line.

They argue the area is a haven for wildlife and does not need developing further.

A spokesman for Whitstable Green Lung, which has launched a poster campaign around the town, said: "It will destroy the majority of trees and vegetation in what they themselves describe as a 'green lung', devastating the wildlife habitat therein."

"Following this, heavy plant will move in to construct a three-metre wide, raised and lit cycle path with municipal planting."

Householder Julie Street said: "I live along Clare Road and have always valued the woodland that has grown up along this disused railway line over the last 50 years."

"When in the garden on summer evenings you notice bats and nightingales. This is a special and rare environment; I really don't want to lose it."

The cycle path would include the construction of two bridges along the route which would take cyclists straight into the centre of Whitstable. Teynham Road and the London to Ramsgate railway would also need to be bridged.

Residents of surrounding roads have also accused council contractors of breaching tree protection orders after they cut down several swathes of woodland as part of the preliminary investigation work.

A spokesman said: "Answers have not been swift, and details sketchy, but what appears to have happened is that the contractors were not informed that the site was covered by the tree protection order, so they just went about their business, cutting back what they liked."

"If the bridges are ever built, let's hope they fully brief the construction team, or they might just knock down someone's house."

Canterbury council said they could not comment on the alleged violation of tree protection orders as the proposal is in the planning application stage, and is due to be considered early next year. Consultation on the plans ends next Wednesday.

CHOPPY: The tide crept up at Whitstable harbour threatening to topple over the sea wall as the surge hit its peak

WITHIN INCHES OF FLOODING

THE widespread flooding may not have occurred as feared, but the tidal surge which swept the coast on Friday still came perilously close to breaching the sea defences in Whitstable.

Locals flocked to the coastline to watch the incoming high tide and witnessed some remarkable sights as the sea became swollen by high winds in the North Sea.

In Whitstable harbour, as pictured, water came within inches of toppling over the sea wall, while the Neptune pub came within a whisker of being hit by the waves which battered the coastline.

Schools had flood plans in place in order to evacuate children had the stormy weather proved too much.

In 1953 the town was swamped by a tidal surge, leaving much of the area under water - in 2007 it proved a lucky escape.

The worst hit areas in Kent were in Sandwich - although it only suffered minor coastal flooding. Log-on to www.yourkenttv.co.uk to view dramatic clips of the sea sweeping in.

AYE, AYE ME HEARTIES: How the pub would have looked (main picture), and how it appears today (inset)

Pub's pirate plans set to be scuppered

COUNCIL captains were expected to sink plans to build a pirate ship on the front of a Whitstable pub, at a planning meeting last night.

Owner of the Wall Tavern, Shirley Randall, wants to build half a wrecked pirate ship onto the front of the popular pub, with its fallen masts and sails providing a canopy to protect smokers during stormy weather.

The buccaneer build, nicknamed the Black Pearl after Captain Jack Sparrow's ship in Pirates of the Caribbean, would replace the existing extension on the front, which regulars complain is ugly and cuts out light from the bar.

But Canterbury council unleashed a powerful broadside against the vessel, arguing it would devalue the town's maritime heritage.

Planning officer Katie Miller said: "If the ship were real and a remnant of Whitstable's maritime heritage then the proposal could be fully supported."

"It is not though, and is not even in a style of boat that is historically associated with Whitstable, but a fake pirate ship."

Mrs Randall said: "We put forward three suggestions for the extension, a traditional one, a contemporary one, and the pirate ship. The pirate ship proved most popular."

■ BY GARETH ARNOLD

Mrs Randall explained the galleon would form the centrepiece for the pub's new pirate theme, aimed at making it more family friendly.

Regular Wall Tavern crew members have written to the council in support of the Black Pearl, arguing the maritime masterpiece would attract tourists to the town with its playful reference to Whitstable's history.

Other supporters confirmed the wrecked pirate ship suggested a friendly, family pub, and claimed it was "in keeping with the existing building".

But planning officers disagreed.

Mrs Miller said: "If such a proposal were permitted, not only would the scheme have a detrimental impact on the conservation area and listed building, but the whole ethos of Whitstable's maritime heritage would be devalued."

The Wall Tavern's galleon would be designed to resemble the rear end of the ship, complete with mast and crow's nest.

Attached to the fallen mast would be a sail which could be unfurled to provide cover for smokers during the winter months.

The ship would be attached to the building with a glass walkway, allowing more light into the pub.

OAP wrestles with job who broke into garden

PENSIONER Michael Hoar grabbed a job who damaged his fence when a drunken prank went wrong in the middle of the night.

He collared Michael Pearce, 20, of Central Avenue, Herne Bay, who was drunkenly trying to pull down two metal geese that had pride of place in his garden.

Canterbury magistrates were told Mr Hoar heard noises coming from his back garden and went to investigate.

He found one of the geese – a favourite of his late wife – lying on the floor and damage to trellis work.

Pearce told police he had kicked his mobile phone into the garden and was trying to retrieve it.

Paul Goldspring, defending, said: "This case is all about my client's stupidity. He was talking on his mobile when the battery packed up. He kicked the phone and then jumped over the fence. The prank caused more distress than he ever thought it would."

Pearce pleaded guilty to criminal damage. The case was adjourned until November 28 for probation reports to be prepared.

Model club is on right track with open day

WHITSTABLE'S model railway society is holding its annual open day next month.

The society runs an extensive model railway, thought to be one of the largest in Kent.

A spokesman said: "Members will also be able to answer questions about aspects of railway modelling and offer advice on how to turn a train set into a model railway."

The event is at the society's club room in Church Street, Whitstable, on December 1, between 10am-4pm. Admission for adults is 70p, children 50p. Families pay £1.95.

Love back on the cards for animal park heir?

DONNA Air and Damian Aspinall could be set to get back together, according to pals.

The TV presenter and the Howletts boss have met several times in recent weeks – despite the fact they recently split up.

The couple, who have a daughter named Freya, were spotted shopping last week and Miss Air recently spent a weekend at Mr Aspinall's Howletts mansion.

A source close to the couple said: "They split because he wanted more children while she wanted to concentrate on her career."

"They are still talking through their problems, but everything looks promising."

Damian Aspinall is the son of the late John Aspinall, who founded both the Howletts and Port Lympne wild animal parks.

Praise for generosity as cathedral funds hit £7m

A CAMPAIGN to save Canterbury Cathedral has raised £7 million in little over a year.

Some of the cash raised since the Save Canterbury Cathedral Appeal was launched last year has already been used for vital restoration work, including stone conservation and protecting the stained glass.

The cathedral is facing the twin perils of old age and pollution and campaigners say it could crumble to the ground unless £50m is raised.

Commenting on the milestone, Brigadier David Innes, chief executive of the appeal, said: "An enormous amount of progress has been made, much of it due to the generosity of the people who have donated financially, run events or given their time."

Bishop voices dismay over plans to close post offices

A SENIOR churchman has called for a moratorium on the possible closure of Post Offices in Kent.

The call from Stephen Venner, the Bishop in Canterbury and of Dover, came on Monday, the closing day of the Post Office's consultation into the future of 58 local facilities.

He said: "The assumption has been made that in rural areas all communities have within them the capacity to provide and develop alternative provision."

"And yet there is no mention within the proposals of any dedicated funding or the facilitation of any community-led or community-assisted models of provision."

QUESTION & ANSWER

JENNA WHITE

Picture PHIL HOUGHTON

Q What is your role in the community?

A I'm the joint owner of Canterbury's first ever milkshake and smoothie store called Shake Shed. I previously worked in public relations for seven years but wanted a complete change so my fiancé, Chris Newham, and I decided to start our own shake store. We spent over a year researching the concept and locations.

We decided that Canterbury would be the best city to host our first store because of the high percentage of students, schools and tourists. The only problem we had was finding the perfect shop but this was soon rectified during a shopping trip – my favourite past time – to the city. As we were walking around we stumbled across 18 Sun Street. The positioning couldn't have been better; close to the Cathedral entrance with through-flow from both city centre schools, older students, tourists and shoppers. We just knew the Shake Shed would fit right in.

Q What's the situation like for businesses in Canterbury at the moment?

A Canterbury is a bustling city full of charm and character. The increase in high street names to the centre has really helped make Canterbury a destination for shopping as well more traditional tourist attractions.

Q What do you enjoy most, and least, about running a business in the city centre?

A I enjoy the support from other businesses in the area – everyone has been so supportive and really rallied round to put the word out about Shake Shed, from hairdressers telling their clients to pizza chains feeding their staff here. The least enjoyable part is not being able to get close to the shop after 10.30am due to the traffic restrictions.

Q What improvements would you like to see in the city?

A This is a really tough question for us because there has been so much done in the last couple of years. Palace Street is a great example and also the Whitefriars development. One thing that isn't so good is the level of traffic outside the city wall.

Q What keeps you awake at night?

A Thinking about where would be the best location for our second store. We've had such a great reception from people in the street that we want to give other people the chance to taste our shakes. It took so long to get our first shop up and running that we've got to start thinking about the next one now.

Q What is the biggest challenge facing the world at present?

A The environment and sustainability. The world has finally woken up to the problem, but it's so easy for people to do more. We should all be recycling what we can and re-using stuff where possible. We've started on the right track. All of our menu boards are made from old pallets and we try to recycle as much as we can but it's not easy because so far we haven't discovered any collections for recycling so it relies on us loading our car up and taking everything to the recycling centre ourselves.

Q How do you relax?

A With a milkshake of course. If I'm not drinking milkshakes I enjoy going to the gym or, drinking a glass of wine on the sofa and watching Midsomer Murders.

Q What is your favourite milkshake?

A The Steamin' Hot Daim bar – it's the best drink for cold winter days.

Q What is the customer favourite?

A At the moment the front runners are Ferrero Rocher and Kinder Bueno shakes. Although Cadbury's Cream Egg and Daim are hot on their heels.

MOVE OR IMPROVE?

Extending your home? Or considering a conservatory? With prices around £1000 per square metre for conservatories and even more for brick built extensions many people opt for creating additional living space outdoors. This has the added benefit currently of not increasing your council tax.

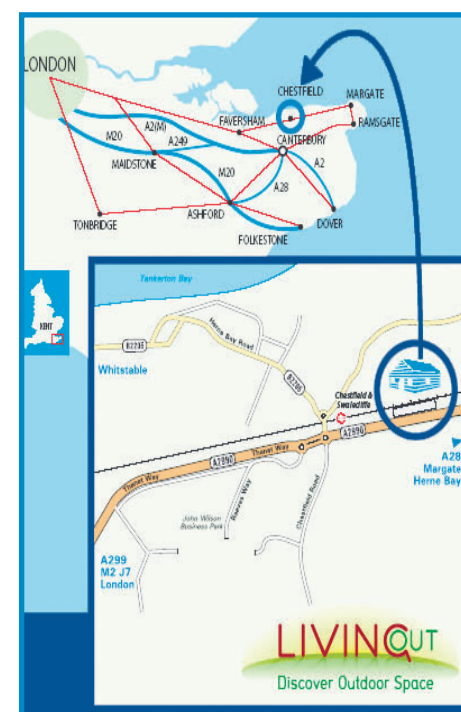

Living Out have a superb solution with their versatile range of interlocking log cabin type buildings. There are over 100 styles and variations of log cabins available and over 30 timber buildings on display at their site on the Thanet Way Whitstable, with prices starting from £120 a square metre installed it really is a very viable alternative to conventional home extensions with superb quality at a fraction of the price. In by far the majority of cases planning permission is not required! However you may wish to check with your local planning authority first.

Timber buildings have an impressive eco-footprint. With timber being a 12 times better insulator than concrete and the only truly renewable and sustainable building material it has been the world's most primary construction material over the centuries.

Having seen Living Out's impressive range of buildings on display and chatted to their friendly sales staff I can recommend a visit.

"We have sold log cabins for many purposes, including home gymnasiums, guest rooms, spa houses, summerhouses and many more. With home offices being particularly popular as more and more people are working from home but still require a quiet environment to concentrate" the sales manager of the Whitstable sales office reported. "People are amazed that a building can be completed within a few weeks of initial contact, and construction takes only a few days, when their alternatives, namely conservatories and extensions, can and will take months to complete at up to 10 times the price."

Living Out's experienced sales team can be reached on 01227 793717 seven days a week or you can email sales@living-out.co.uk. The sales office is based in the grounds of Johnson's Country Superstore, towards the coast on the main Thanet Way at Chestfield, approx 300yards after the Chestfield and Swalecliffe railway station.

Listeners go online to hear DJs' confessions

BY GARY WRIGHT

INVICTA FM's online confessions are proving a huge hit with listeners anxious to find out all the dirt on their favourite presenter.

Bosses at the top station have ordered a host of its biggest names to confess their deepest secrets on camera in one of the most revealing stunts the station has ever staged.

Viewers at yourkenttv.co.uk can watch the likes of breakfast show king and queen James Heming and Ali Wheeler spill the beans.

An insider at the radio station revealed: "Listeners to the show will, for the first time, be able to see the presenters and look into their eyes as they reveal some of their worst moments."

Shocking

"It's surprising, embarrassing and shocking. It's a brilliant idea. The presenters have to tell fans something about themselves that they could never find out any other way. And the best part about it all is that it is all helping raise money for disadvantaged children."

Every confession will be broadcast on Yourkenttv.co.uk every day this week and as we went to press Claire Lawson was winning with her toilet story.

Ali Wheeler shocked the world by admitting what really turns her on in men and causes co-presenter James Heming to strip off.

KOS Media, publishers of this newspaper and broadcasters of Yourkenttv – will give £1 to the Help a Kent Child – for every person that registers this week. Registration is completely free and not only will members be able to upload their own video clips, they will also receive e-editions of our newspapers completely free.

Help a Kent Child is Invicta FM's charity

SECRETS REVEALED: (clockwise) Invicta FM's James Heming, Ali Wheeler, Andy Walker, Claire Lawson, Neil Kefford and Stephen Sullivan have revealed their most embarrassing moments in aid of charity which raises funds to help disadvantaged young people to fulfil dreams and ambitions they would never have thought possible.

There are many children in Kent who experience the negative effects of poverty, abuse, neglect, homelessness, violence, crime, illness and disability; who are carers for their own parents or who are indirect victims of domestic violence or suffer daily pain due to illness.

In this world of glamour and gain, these are the children Invicta FM and KOS Media want to help.

Afternoon show presenter Andy Walker initially refused to reveal anything more about himself, but as station bosses put their foot down the truth finally came out.

Drivetime presenter Neil Kefford was prepared and he just told the truth. "There was no other way," he said.

Evening presenter Stephen Sullivan almost escaped but no-one could be left out and he too was forced to reveal all.

• Go to www.yourkenttv.co.uk to see the presenters' confessions.

Green group calls for bike training to be improved

GREEN campaigners have accused Kent County Council of failing to provide enough cycle training to keep young people safe.

Kent Green Party says the county council should use the government's national training scheme – instead of its own one-day courses.

Campaigner Steve Dawe said: "Kent's courses are not being run under the Government's national scheme, in which far more training is provided."

"Medway uses the government scheme, gets a grant, and does not charge youngsters or their families for cycle proficiency training."

But KCC cabinet member for highways Keith Ferrin said: "We take cycle training very seriously. We offer our own Kent Rider scheme as an introduction to safer cycling for Year 6 pupils countywide."

"About 10,000 pupils were successfully introduced to cycling in this way during the last school year."

"The Kent scheme offers a one-day, on-the-road course with a ratio of one instructor for every six pupils."

"Parents pay £15 a year for the course which, I believe, represents good value-for-money."

He added: "In an ideal world we would offer free training to all, but the cost to the taxpayer would run into hundreds of thousands of pounds."

Over half our schools are officially labelled healthy

A TOTAL of 310 schools countywide have been officially designated as "healthy".

The NHS and Kent County Council are behind the move, which promotes fruit and veg tuck shops, healthy menus for lunch and physical activities.

It is designed as part of a lifestyle package which also includes educational standards and personal well-being.

A total of 59 per cent of schools across the county have currently qualified for the award.

Chris Wells, KCC schools chief, said: "Hopefully the programme will influence pupils throughout their lives and in turn inspire their families to healthier lifestyles."

All wrapped up

Simon Robinson finds out how to make your gift even more special with a new wrapping service at Bluewater

THE RUN-UP to Christmas fills me with dread.

As a criminally disorganised 20-something male, just thinking about the whole present-buying process is enough to bring me out in a cold sweat.

I know how it should be done; think of what your loved-ones would like, buy it, wrap it, stick it under the tree.

Sadly I am completely lacking in the necessary skills to complete this seemingly simple four-part task.

Unable to use any initiative when it comes to matching people with gifts and quick to use the 'head-in-the-sand' technique, I'm resigned to my fate of aimlessly wandering through Bluewater's halls on Christmas Eve desperate, panicked and alone. Again.

Having impulse-bought for England to get past the purchasing stage I move on to the next equally daunting challenge – wrapping.

Armed with only three metres of wrapping paper, a pair of scissors and a roll of sticky tape, I'm usually able to make steady progress on the standard-shaped pressies – books, CDs and DVDs.

It's the odd-shaped and awkwardly-packaged gifts which reduce me to tears: how do you wrap a football?!

Enter gift wrapping guru Jane Mears with a host of top tips and advice for people like me who have the hand equivalent of two left feet.

After an hour of paper creasing, knot-tying and ribbon cutting at one of Jane's workshops I had successfully wrapped a bottle of wine, a Christmas pudding and made a giftbag.

What's more, said items neither resemble a train wreck nor were they precariously held together with 100 pieces of sticky tape.

I'm confident for the first time this year I can offer the family perfectly wrapped presents on Christmas morning, but they'll still be handed over while rolling out my usual disclaimer "if you don't like it, I've got the receipt".

Jane's top tips

1 For awkward shapes, use flexible wrapping like cellophane.

2 If wrapping something sharp, pad with tissue or bubble wrap first.

3 Use double sided tape for that professional touch.

4 Keep your wrapping area organised and free of clutter.

5 Keep ribbon and paper offcuts, they will come in handy for decorative touches.

6 If it's round, place a bowl underneath your paper to keep it still.

7 When wrapping garments, fold neatly into a compact square or oblong and wrap with tissue.

8 Make sure you have some sharp scissors for cutting ribbon. Blunt scissors are only good for cutting paper.

9 If you can't be bothered to do it yourself, Webster's Wrapology are offering a unique, high quality gift wrapping service within Bluewater up to Christmas Eve. Prices start from £3.95 for a small item and go up to £7.95 for a large gift.

Shopping centre switch-on draws crowds

BLUEWATER celebrated the start of the Christmas shopping season on Thursday as Santa switched on the Christmas lights.

Invicta FM's Ali Wheeler and James Heming, with characters from upcoming festive movie Alvin and the Chipmunks, joined Father Christmas for the big turn on watched by a crowd of several hundred people.

The shopping mall also opened its grotto for Christmas with children from the Demelza House hospice getting a special preview.

Radio personality Ali said:

"This has been great, we've had loads of children and families and they're all enjoying themselves."

Bluewater shopping centre is expecting trade to grow over the coming weeks.

General manager Andre Parkinson said: "We've had an excellent year already, but the festive season is always busy."

"The lead up to Christmas sees shoppers flocking here – but our busiest day of the year is actually December 27. So there is not going to be much of a rest for our staff over the holiday period."

Backchat

with Dr. Christian Farthing at the Ideal Spine Centre, Canterbury

Did you get your £1,500 cheque?

In February 2007, BBC 4 televised a show called 'Dispatches' questioning where all the money goes in our NHS.

Statistics have shown us that the NHS spends an average of £1,500 per year on every man, woman and child in the UK. I don't know about you, but I have not seen my £1,500 for the past seven years since I moved from Australia to Canterbury in 2000. Upon asking many of my healthy patients, they haven't had £1,500 of services from the NHS either!

There is a National deficit in excess £3 billion and the problem is just getting worse. Most people close their eyes and think "that doesn't affect me". Well, the truth is, it does: either in taxes, treatment, mistakes or in injury. We have a problem that is so big, that most people leave it in the hands of the politicians. The solution is so obvious, but unfortunately for the politicians, it is an 'inconvenient truth'.

Just imagine if the government gave each and every one of us £1,500 each year to spend on our health. We would have a wellness explosion! More people could afford a gym membership, to go on health experiences like health days, buy fresh produce from their local farm shops instead of buying packet food and poor quality produce from mass produced food chains, buy water filters to be able to drink a clean water source, have regular preventative spine and health checkups and take more regular stress free holidays.

What would our town look like? Gyms filled, swimming pools, sauna and spa facilities would be in great demand, more wellness doctors teaching people about health and keeping you well, without the use of drugs and surgery!

Just imagine...

On the other side of town, hospital beds would be empty and the few people with life threatening diseases and emergencies would be treated quickly and efficiently. This would be a first...enough beds! Medical practices would be quiet and if you had a serious problem, you could easily get in on the day. Imagine not having to call first thing in the morning and hope for an appointment.

Just imagine...

There would be less people killed as a result of medical error because less people would go to the medical doctor because they would be kept well by seeing new age wellness doctors who are not interested in the profits of the pharmaceutical companies, but in the people and their families' wellbeing. The great principled medical specialists who save lives will do their jobs with less stress and make a lot less mistakes. People will be served as people and not as a number. You will be seen because you need it, not just to fulfil government targets.

Just imagine...

An average 300 people die each day due to errors made by medicine. That is what happens each and every day in the UK. That number has increased in the past five years to make medicine the leading cause of death in the UK after heart disease and cancer. The question is, if we keep using medicine as our health solution, how long will it take for it to be the No.1 preventable cause of death?

To add to an already serious problem, mistakes cost the NHS an additional £730 million each year! So, to get well and stay well, medicine may be good for an emergency (if you are lucky), but definitely no good for your future wellness. Speak to your Wellness Doctor first, not last!

During the month of November our family practice is providing free spine and posture health checks for families. The first 50 callers will also receive a copy of my most recent book to help understand the secrets to better health, naturally. We look forward to helping you.

COASTAL WEATHER STATION

Combining a tide clock, barometer and conventional clock, the coastal weather station is an essential tool for coastal living.

The coastal weather station is everything you need to get the most from our incredible coastline: a barometer to determine changing weather patterns; a tide clock to predict when best to go and enjoy yourself and a conventional clock for timing your escape. Constructed on a solid aluminium base with a tough protective polycarbonate shroud, the coastal weather station is available in two colours. Wall mounted. Dimensions: 300x150mm. Weather forecasting with your coastal weather station.

TIME AND TIDE CLOCK

From sailing to sand castles, we all need to know what the tide is doing!

Synchronised to the moon's daily cycle, the combination time and tide clock gives you an innovative and convenient guide to tides, whilst also providing conventional time keeping. The quartz driven tide hand will rotate every 12 hours and 25 minutes around the solid stainless steel fascia, giving you the state of the tide at a glance. This design also provides an indication of how many hours remain until high or low water.

The black conventional clock hands work quite independently from the tide hand and can be adjusted using the small fly wheel on the back of the movement. The tide hand can be adjusted using the larger wheel, again found on the back of the movement.

Think-tanks and right wing press won't stop Christmas

LIKE supermarkets selling crackers in October, the annual blather about cancelling Christmas has got off to an early start.

ITN ran a story on their website on November 1 which suggests we had better enjoy those mince pies while we can, because in future Christmas could be "downgraded" to avoid offending minority groups.

The article harrumphs on about The Institute of Public Research's recommendation that other public festivals should be given equal recognition as Christmas.

They quote from the think tank's report: "If we are going to continue to mark Christmas – and it would be very hard to expunge it from our national life even if we wanted to – then public organisations should mark other major religious festivals too."

That's hardly controversial stuff. In fact, it's admitting that a: we don't want to get rid of Christmas, and b: we couldn't if we tried.

So why have they run the story?

Has anyone honestly met someone who has said: "I decided not to put lights up this year to avoid offending the Hindu family next door?"

My guess would be no.

And has anyone ever met a Hindu family who has complained about Christmas? Again, I'd bet money on the fact they haven't.

Yet the story lurches on with the subtlety and tact of a drunken carol singer, stating that: "It emerged in 2006 that three out of four employers were not putting up Christmas decorations in the workplace for fear of offending staff of other cultures."

Really?

There is no mention, of course, of where it emerged from. A mince pie? Someone's imagination?

Who carried out this research? How many people did they ask?

The term "it emerged" seems designed simply to muddy the waters.

And where did they get "three in four"? Was this study carried out in a Chinese restaurant with 12 employees, eight of whom are practicing Buddhists?

And where does the term "downgraded", so gleefully wedged in the introduction, come from?

This is not attributed to the think tank.

Could it be editorial spin on a story the news editor has seen has the potential to provoke angry emails? I'm sure a respected news service would never stoop so low. Not at Christmas!

In actual fact, no one has ever taken legal action because they were offended by Christmas, and there is no legal requirement for businesses or councils to celebrate all faiths.

Unfortunately the sales orientated hyperbole of the right wing press serves to scare people into thinking there might be.

This type of story is as seasonal as snowmen, drink driving adverts and chronic bouts of indigestion, but publishing it is as professional as staging a nativity play with a live donkey. We all know the inevitable result.

TALK TIME

NEIL McCOLLUM

The tourism manager for Canterbury council since 2008 discusses life and work in the area

What does your job entail?

I am responsible for managing, developing and promoting the Canterbury district as a visitor destination. Canterbury is an internationally known destination and as such we work with organisations both in the UK and overseas.

What are the particular challenges facing Canterbury at present?

There are always challenges in my job, but in many cases they are opportunities as well. Our main concern is to ensure Canterbury remains competitive as a destination in what is now a global marketplace. The emergence of new destinations along with cheap flights means consumers now have more choice. However it also means the number of people we can market to has increased so the challenge is to ensure Canterbury can 'up its game' year on year.

What do you like about working in the district?

There are a number of things that appeal to me, not least the wonderful atmosphere and buzz you get walking through the city centre. From a personal point of view, I love having the choice of restaurants, cafes and pubs and from a professional point of view I enjoy working with the local businesses, most of whom have a positive and forward thinking attitude.

What don't you like about working in the Canterbury district?

If I had to say one thing it is probably the traffic congestion. I live in Thanet and have to drive in every day and sometimes that can take up to an hour. I try to plan the timings of my journeys with military precision but sometimes that isn't enough. But then again it's a city based on a street plan over 1,500 years old so we can't have everything.

Flood of panic is no good to anyone

What a complete farce the warnings about a flood were. I am sure I was not alone in feeling extremely concerned throughout Thursday night at the threat of my home being swamped (I live not far from the coast in Herne Bay).

But it seems that once again in a desperate effort to avoid any criticism we were not warned, but subjected to near panic coverage from the relevant authorities.

I'd like to think that in the future everyone involved in passing on the warnings – and I include the media – can perhaps bear in mind the fear it creates.

My children were left petrified by the prospect of a tsunami sweeping through their school on Friday morning.

The blanket coverage of impending doom was almost inexcusable. Especially as there appeared to be no flooding at all.

Council tax bill is unfair to elderly

I live in Greenhill and am concerned about the state of the roads in the area.

There is, we are told, never any money to repair or resurface our highways, but Canterbury appears to fare far better.

We do not get a refund for lack of service and care. It appears we are the poor relation to Canterbury. It makes me very annoyed as to the way in which the budget is carved up.

Also, many people on low income have to pay council tax but landlords on student lets do not, nor do the students.

How unfair is this? Canterbury has many such households. I believe this is a very great case of unfair treatment of the elderly and people on low income.

Mrs B Bedford
Herne Bay

Why are we made to suffer so much?

I would be very grateful if someone could explain just why us Thanet Way motorists are once again being subjected to lengthy hold-ups and delays every week?

It seems like only the other day the road was undergoing repairs and improvements and yet, here we are again, with a lane shut and the journey time extended.

Couldn't they have done it all last time to prevent these problems occurring again?

main roads have to be shut, but this weekend's closure of the Thanet Way was too much.

All weekend we had a procession of lorries and cars making their way through Blean as motorists looked for different routes. It made life dangerous for pedestrians and was not helped by idiots trying to overtake heavy goods vehicles on roads not designed for such manoeuvres.

I keep my fingers crossed we do not have to suffer a repeat.

Parking row is the bane of our lives

Congratulations - someone has finally highlighted one of the most irritating issues to impact on our daily lives - the rows and tension caused by on-street parking.

Your mystery blogger was spot on when they mentioned how much ill-feeling there is generated by daring to park in the wrong place or, heaven forbid, close to someone's dropped kerb.

There is a street in Whitstable where, literally, parking a millimetre over the entrance to someone's driveway results in the rudest notes being attached to your windscreen.

Perhaps more amusing is the fact they do not realise how completely hated they are by the entire neighbourhood as a result.

Curtain twitchers need to get a life

Good mystery blogger last week. The twitching curtain brigade seem to have nothing better to do in this day and age than complain if you dare park outside their home.

However, it does highlight the issue of most homes now having two cars and the extra strain it places on roads - especially terraced streets.

Well done to Julian Brazier for his

It is just such a shame it should take the intervention of our local MP for the decision to deport him to be reviewed.

Deportation attempt is a crazy affair

Thank goodness the Home Office has decided to reconsider its ruling to deport Hartley Alleyne.

As a cricketer he entertained us, and as a teacher he has helped develop the next breed of English cricketers.

The fact he has lived here for nearly 30 years and has a family here just highlights how crazy the whole case has been.

Why life is Extra sweet for Shaun

Shaun Williamson looks back over a busy year, and forward to the unexpected

AFTER a packed year, Maidstone-born actor Shaun Williamson is looking forward to an uncertain future.

Currently preparing to star in pantomime at The Marlowe Theatre, Williamson has no fixed plans for the New Year, despite a number of offers.

"Sometimes the phone just rings and it changes your life," he revealed. "I don't mean that in a grandiose way, but it can be nice just waiting to see what will turn up next. I didn't think anything would happen this year, but I've not stopped."

One call that certainly did change his life was from comedy star Ricky Gervais two years ago. Following Williamson's performance as the luckless Barry Evans in Eastenders, Gervais wanted him in Extras.

"I'd never met Ricky, he just called and offered me the part. He told me 'we need to discuss it because you might not like it', but they outlined the first series and it sounded great."

After 10 years in Eastenders, Williamson was ready for a change. To say his character Barry had a tough time is an understatement – he was conned, lost his father and was wrongly diagnosed as having a fatal condition before being murdered by his unfaithful wife.

Since he left the soap in 2004, life has been distinctly more upbeat. The accomplished singer, who lives with his family near Faversham, has enjoyed runs in the West End with Saturday Night Fever and Guys and Dolls, starred in the Rocky Horror Show and Oliver and appeared on numerous television programmes.

He has also recently acted in an adaptation of Rapunzel for the BBC and filmed a movie, British drama Daylight Robbery.

He will be stepping into Barry/Shaun's shoes again for the Extras Christmas special, it is likely to be the last episode, but he is still upbeat about the future: "I never thought I would be working with Ricky Gervais in a million years. I've been so lucky."

Shaun Williamson will be appearing as Abanazar in Aladdin, alongside presenter Stephen Mulhern, local hero Dave Lee and a troupe of Mongolian acrobats.

Tickets are priced from £8.50 to £21.50. For details see www.marlowetheatre.com, call the box office on 01227 787787 or pick up a brochure from the theatre.

Orange Street Music Club, Canterbury

EXPERIENCE some guitar-driven tales of misfortune when Hexicon perform at the Orange Street Music Club.

The trio, from Maidstone and London, use lap-steel, French horn embellishments and "budget Beach Boy harmonies" to produce their psych-pop and indie influenced sound. The band has shared bills with the likes of Bert Jansch, Fanfarlo, Super Furry Animals and the Mystery Jets, and member Thom Allard often plays horn for Darren Hayman and Rob Rotifer.

Their new album, recorded with Greg Webster in Gillingham, will be released on the Mentalist Association label early next year. An early recorded version of Hexicon's Follow The Herd was recently included on the Dazed & Confused Mentalist Association

Described as "the sound of mellow hillbillies tripping in the countryside", Hexicon should provide an evening of unique musical entertainment.

NIGHTMARE SONGS

Saturday, November 17
Gulbenkian Theatre, Canterbury

A YOUNG actor's opportunity for stardom turns into a nightmare in Opera della Luna's incredible new production.

Nightmare Songs follows the ordeal of an understudy who is given one day's notice that he is "on". A sleepless night in his dingy theatrical digs ensues, as he tries to rehearse his role. Another resident of the house, himself a variety performer, attempts to help but more often hinders the actor's efforts.

As the night wears on, their discussions take on a more disturbing tone and the understudy's rehearsal turns into a true nightmare.

Driven by the patter songs of Gilbert and Sullivan, the show stars Simon Butteriss as the panic-stricken actor and Jeff Clarke, the company's artistic director, as his musical adversary.

The performance starts at 7.45pm. Tickets cost £14/£12. To book, call the box office on 01227 769075 or visit the website at www.gulbenkiantheatre.co.uk.

ON GENERAL RELEASE

GOOD LUCK CHUCK (15)

It all started when Chuck was 10 years old. Breaking the cardinal rules of spin-the-bottle, Charlie refused to kiss a Goth girl, and she put a hex on him. Now, 25 years later, Charlie is a successful dentist... and still cursed so that any girl who sleeps with him will fall madly in love with the next man she meets.

PLANET TERROR (18)

After an experimental bio nerve gas is accidentally released at a remote US military base in Texas, those exposed to the gas turn into flesh eating, mutating zombies out to kill. Rodriguez directs at full pelt, but his film runs out of dramatic steam in the first hour, leaving the majority of the overblown action to his feisty, gravity-defying heroine.

BUG (18)

A weirdo war veteran who suffers hallucinations about insects shacks up in an Oklahoma city motel with Agnes, a lonely waitress on the run from her abusive husband. As the misfits bond, his paranoia gradually infects Aggie, driving the pair of them to experience terrifying visions.

Robert's focus on America

BY EILEEN CONDON

ACTOR and director Robert Redford has no intention of mellowing with age – despite turning 71 this year.

In fact the star says he is more opinionated than ever – particularly when it comes to the current situation in the US.

"It's true to say I'm probably getting angrier and more engaged," he says flashing his trademark blue eyes.

"I'm aware that America has a lot of power and a lot of ability to do good in the world, so I'm very interested in what has happened to our reputation in the world since 9/11."

Redford's laid-back demeanour and gentle manner belies a fierce passion for politics which he's channelled through some of cinema's most influential films, like The Candidate and All The President's Men.

And almost 40 years after hitting the big time in Butch Cassidy And The Sundance Kid, he has come out with all guns blazing again. This time, with his latest movie Lions For Lambs, he has his targets firmly set on the American media, education and on US Congress.

Redford, who also directed the film, stars alongside Tom Cruise and Meryl Streep as an idealistic college professor who inadvertently propels two of his former students into the Afghanistan war with tragic consequences.

Though he had not directed a film for seven years, the veteran star says the screenplay immediately resonated with him. "I was surprised by it because it was political and there's so much commercial insecurity about films these days it seems that only the ones that play safe get made."

"Those that are more risky in nature, that maybe make you think or wonder, are harder to come by. And yet those are the films I've always enjoyed making," he explains.

"To me, it's a film about personal responsibility, about young people accepting the role they play in shaping the future and about how we each deal with our choices in life."

Playing a college professor also struck an ironic chord with the star, as his own education was cut short when he was kicked out of the University of Colorado for drunkenness.

The failed college student went on to become one of the most successful actors in screen history thanks to acclaimed performances in hit films such as Butch Cassidy, The Sting, The Way We Were and The Great Gatsby.

He's also proved to be equally skilled behind the camera with an Oscar win for his directorial debut Ordinary People and a nomination for his 1994 film Quiz Show.

PASSION: Robert Redford directed and stars in his new film Lions for Lambs, a modern, political movie

Despite his stellar career Redford has maintained his integrity as a committed environmentalist and set up the hugely-successful Sundance Film Festival, which encourages new film-makers and actors.

He gave two of the hottest current talents in Hollywood their big break, Brad Pitt in A River Runs Through It, which he directed and Scarlett Johansson, in The Horse Whisperer. His latest find is rising British star Andrew Garfield, who appears in Lions For Lambs.

"I've always enjoyed finding new people," said Redford. "I knew Andrew was English and I'd seen a lot of American actors, but I was very impressed that he could come in and read the part perfectly in an American accent."

YOUR WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY RUSSELL GRANT

AQUARIUS (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

THE next three weeks find you having extensive talks with authority figures. This may be your big chance to present a bold idea, ask for a promotion, or enact changes to a large organisation. Don't be vague in your responses. If you don't know the answer to a question, admit it. Hedging will make people suspicious.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)

ENTERING into a professional partnership is a good idea. There's never been a better time to sign a contract. Your employer may be vague about future rewards. Get any promises regarding payments in writing. Be willing to make amends. A meeting of the minds generates romance. Nothing excites your imagination like common interests.

LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)

REAL estate matters could take up a good deal of your week. This is a good time to negotiate a home purchase or rental agreement. A romantic partner's ideas about domestic life may be very different from yours. It may be necessary to revise a project. Do this behind the scenes. The less attention you draw to this matter, the better.

SCORPIO (Oct 24 - Nov 22)

YOU'LL find a receptive audience to your ideas. Take each and every opportunity to share your brainstorms. Confusion over a family matter could undermine your authority. If you think you made a mistake, be honest. Don't be too forceful when discussing sensitive matters like religion and politics. An older friend will impart good advice.

PISCES (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

IF you've been thinking of going back to school, send out applications before the end of the month. If you're interested in winning someone's heart, play hard to get. Pairing up with someone who has lots of experience can advance your cause, particularly if you are doing business overseas or are dealing with an unfamiliar culture.

GEMINI (May 22 - Jun 22)

IF you've been suffering from a nagging pain, get a consultation with a health professional. Looking for work? Send out a slew of CVs and job applications. Take an expert's advice with a grain of salt, especially with regard to your job. Curb your spending between now and January, or you could incur some serious debt.

VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sep 23)

IF you're in the market for office equipment, you're in luck. Don't overestimate your physical endurance, especially with regard to work. Putting in late nights and long hours could really tax your health. Pulling back from an intense group project will give you more time for personal pursuits between now and late January.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23 - Dec 21)

KEEP your own counsel over the next three weeks. It's best to keep plans private. What was meant as a kind remark could be interpreted the wrong way. Be prepared to explain yourself. It may be best to back down from an amorous affair, as this alliance seems to be clouding your thinking. Onlookers are impressed by your modesty.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)

THIS week prompts you to think carefully about joint finances. Neither a lender nor a borrower be, especially where friends are concerned. A home improvement project could experience some delays between now and January; it may be time to table any major decisions regarding this job. Being resourceful earns you great success at work.

CANCER (Jun 23 - Jul 23)

MAKING plans for a vacation, party, or club gathering is a good use of your talent this week. It gives you great pleasure to organise fun activities. If you're already in a relationship, take care to learn your partner's true desires. It may be best to downplay your aggression. You can't afford to make enemies during this tense period.

LIBRA (Sep 24 - Oct 23)

NEGOTIATING new financial arrangements could prove profitable. A show of wealth won't impress a love interest - use your creativity as bait. An aggressive authority figure is beginning to let up; you could get a welcome reprieve from their oppressive gaze between now and early February. Trust your intuition with regard to a business deal.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

GROUP efforts stimulate your imagination. If you have an idea, run it past a supportive group of friends. Together, you can create a masterpiece, turning a merely good concept into a brilliant one. Don't assume that your peers have as much money as you do. Ease off a partner who is showing signs of strain. Compassion goes a long way.

Trinny and Susannah shape up UK's women

■ BY ANDY WELCH

FROM cellos and goblets to bricks and lollipops, Trinny and Susannah believe they've finally come up with the 12 definitive female body shapes after interrogating thousands of British women about their saddle bags, muffin tops, cankles and pot bellies.

"In our first book we researched the big issues for women such as massive or no boobs, flabby arms, wide hips, short legs, flabby tummies and so on, but over the years a lot of women have pointed out that some of the rules contradicted each other. We thought we'd better deal with that so we came up with the 12 shapes," Trinny explains.

"There's way too much emphasis on what dress size someone is but I never, ever look at the labels in clothes when I'm dressing somebody. I look at the woman's shape and the contrast between her boobs and tummy or whatever, not by picking out a size 14 jacket and just hoping it works."

Susannah adds: "Basically, we wrote The Body Shape Bible to give women confidence and to stop them pulling their hair out when they go shopping for clothes!"

Trinny and Susannah's latest tome highlights the main characteristics of each of their 12 new female body shapes and illustrates how just how easy it is to make simple mistakes by blindly following fashion instead of being aware of what suits your shape.

"The rules and ideas in the book are simple and fundamental so, for example, if you are a cornet shape with wide shoulders, narrow hips and long legs you should always wear A-line, single breasted jackets because you're top heavy," Susannah reveals.

SHOPPING SUPREMOS: Trinny and Susannah are on a mission to help women find the right clothes to suit them

"Or if you're a column shape, you should always try to break up your up-and-down body with a funky belt, or a top or dress with a cinched-in waist so that it draws attention to the middle of your body."

In their brand new ITV1 series, Trinny and Susannah Undress The Nation, the girls have the chance to take their innovative new dress code for a road test all over the UK to tackle the country's major style issues.

"Something like 46 per cent of British women are over a size 16 but 80 per cent of high street shops don't stock size 16 and above so larger women often have to shop via catalogues and mail order," reveals Trinny.

"The situation is getting better but it's still very difficult, so rather than going into a shop and picking out all of the size 16s or 18s to try on, no matter what style they are, we want women to ignore the sizes and find the right clothes for their shape instead.

"Just go in and think 'right, I'm going to find all the double-breasted jackets, or all the A-line skirts, or all of the long tailored trousers with pockets at the back or whatever it is that suits my shape' rather than trying on twenty-odd random items in the same size and then getting depressed because none of them actually suit you," she recommends.

Of course, it's not only grown women who make fashion disasters. The teenage generation are just as guilty of putting together catwalk-copied outfits which generally do them no favours at all.

"Right now I would say that a lot of women, especially teenage girls, are wearing very unforgiving skinny jeans simply to feel fashionable and, let's face it, only someone with a Kate Moss-type figure ever looks any good in them," warns Trinny.

"Teenagers are under such enormous pressure from their peers and the media and it's pretty tough if they're not the exact shape that society dictates they should be.

"In my opinion a girl who is pear shaped can still look great as she could just wear a baby doll dress with leggings that come down her mid-calf as a trendy alternative to skinny jeans. There's no shape dilemma that can't be solved," she says.

A LOVE SUPREME

Caring, honest and genuine male, with a good heart, 34,

Enjoy an exotic island mixer

■ BY CHRIS COURT

A FEW miles south-west of its rather more exotic neighbour Mustique, Canouan may at last be ready to shrug off its image as the forgotten island of the Caribbean.

Thanks to the vision of two multi-millionaires, the green and hilly three square miles of Canouan have been sensitively transformed into a luxury, multi-activity holiday destination.

The island now offers everything most visitors could possibly want – thanks to Swiss-Italian banker Antonio Saladino and American businessman Donald Trump, who have ensured there is plenty to do ashore and afloat, as well as simply soaking up the sun.

At the heart of the Grenadines chain, Canouan has five palm-fringed, soft white coral sand beaches, bath-warm brilliant turquoise seas, a 1.5-mile coral reef, views for miles over the Caribbean from its peaks and average minimum temperatures around 25°C.

Visitors meander the snaking network of narrow roads and paths in golf carts, taking care to avoid the population of tortoises – known locally as turtles – after which the island was named.

A 15-year plan to build 135 high-spec Trump Island Villas, costing from about £1 million, will enable the super-rich to have their own slice of secluded Caribbean paradise here, with breathtaking views.

BEAUTY: A sunset view of Canouan Island's golf course from the balcony of a Raffles resort holiday cottage

Shorter-term, and less well-off, visitors can wallow in top-of-the-range facilities on the 300-acre, five-star Raffles Resort instead, and the smaller Tamarind Beach Hotel & Yacht Club, with both offering superb world cuisine at various gourmet restaurants.

Raffles Resort Canouan Island complex – the luxury hotel group's first resort in the western hemisphere – opened in August 2004.

An amphitheatre-shaped, palm tree setting overlooking sheltered Carenage Bay, it holds 156 dramatically decorated and stylishly furnished one to four bedroom suites and villas, with garden, ocean or golf course views.

If you can drag yourself away from the hotel's gorgeous confines, there's plenty to see and do. We took a high-speed motorboat to Tobago Keys, just 40 minutes away. Because our visit was in the September-October close season, we had this island virtually to ourselves – although a chap soon appeared with a wide choice of T-shirts for sale.

With many young people leaving to find work on other islands, Canouan's population dwindled to under 500. But in 1990, Saladino took a 99-year lease on 1,200 acres, two thirds, of the island.

The story goes that he was unable to build on Mustique and saw Canouan's potential just a few miles across the Caribbean.

Since then the banker and Canouan Resorts Development, which he heads, have spent more than £100m installing an airstrip, roads, electricity, water production, a clinic, schools and a training college.

Now there are some 500 people working at the island's 300-acre Raffles Resort, more than 80 at Tamarind, and some 300 for Trump's villa developments building company.

Raffles merits such a large workforce. As well as the golf course and the fabulous restaurants, it has a well-equipped gym and also offers tennis, yoga, mountain biking and power walking, and sea sports including windsurfing, sailing diving and snorkelling.

SHAMEFUL BEHAVIOUR: Local rockers, drawing on influences such as Kiss and Black Sabbath, perform the song So Fine in style at the lamented Ashford Rocks festival earlier this year.

LOCAL TV ONLINE

TURNSTYLE: Churning out hits from the last 50 years, Maidstone band TurnStyle have been together for nearly a decade. Here they perform the classic Saving All My Love.

CONCRETE JUICE: More than 1,000 views have been chalked up for what is billed as an 'exciting visual feast' by Kate Fotis and Natalie Lungley of Westerham, set to the music of the Prodigy's Under My Wheels.

THE BISCUIT RAPPER RETURNS: EmCee Flapjack is back again, this time with DJ Digestive. They are going to teach you how to move on the dance floor.

THE VALUES: Can you help this clip make it to the 2,000 views milestone? The clip, Please Forgive Me, was made by talented trio Matt Lungley, Will Powell and Brad Stockham from Westerham.

PROPERTY NEWS

Noisy neighbours top quarrel polls

NOISE is still the main reason for neighbourly disputes, according to research by Halifax estate agents.

In the last 12 months over a quarter of us admit to having had disagreements with neighbours – 26 per cent of these were linked to noise.

The report goes on to list the other main causes for neighbours to fall out, including boundary disputes (14 per cent), pets (11 per cent), parking (10 per cent) and bordering or overhanging trees and plants (7 per cent).

Figures show that women outnumbered men when it came to complaining, with anti-social behaviour their largest grievance.

Age also seems to be a factor. A staggering 49 per cent of 16-24 year olds admitted to quarrelling with the neighbours, whilst the 55-64 age group, at 24 per cent, was least likely to have done so.

Geographically, the report identified that those living in the south are over 10 per cent more likely to have had neighbourly disputes sometime during the last year than those living in the North or Midlands.

The conclusion would seem to indicate that if we want harmonious neighbourly relations we should move next-door to a quiet, 60-year-old Yorkshireman.

Bank maintains rate

THE Bank of England's Monetary Policy Committee announced on Thursday it is to maintain the official bank rate of 5.75 per cent.

The rate last increased by 0.25 percentage points its current rate on July 5.

Kent homeowners will gain confidence from the fact that variable rate mortgages will not increase in the immediate future but the decision to maintain current rates went against widespread speculation of a decrease.

Best year to date

DOWNLAND Housing Association reported its best ever year to date.

It built over 400 new homes in the affordable sector across 39 local authorities in the South East, 30 in Kent.

Downland chief executive Mark Perry said: "Several hundred more are in the pipeline including developments in Ashford and Medway. These will range from one bedroom flats to three bedroom houses according to the assessed needs in each area."

WELCOME: The American way of opening your house for the public to view could be the best way to tackle our slowing property market

Can open viewings help sell houses?

■ BY JENNY SANTOS

AS THE property market slows down, open house viewings could be the next big thing for vendors struggling to sell their homes.

Already the norm in the USA and Australia, the trend seems to be catching on here.

Open viewings see vendors throw open their doors on a fixed day, usually at the weekend, inviting potential buyers to view their home without the constraints of having to make a prior appointment.

Traditionally the domain of prestigious houses, the open house is usually seen as an efficient way for estate agents to condense many viewings into one day or to introduce competitive hype between buyers for high demand properties.

However, with a sluggish property market, the 'open house' can be a useful marketing tool for enthusiastic vendors who are prepared to be pro-active in selling their own home. It seems to make sense. Most estate agents are closed at the weekend when a large number of people are free to look at potential homes.

Buyers can wander around the property at their leisure and vendors can prepare for a single public viewing, rather than trying to live in a constant state of readiness for ad-hoc appointments.

I recently made my own foray into open viewings whilst trying to sell my two-bedroom, terraced cottage.

It had been on the market for six weeks with only a sprinkling of interest and one sole viewing.

Belying first impressions, it really is quite spacious inside with a lovely, large rear garden but with the tired phrase 'must be viewed' not doing the trick, frustration led me to arrange an open day.

I had to face the fact that I was inviting not only potential buyers but also local nosey parkers into my home, but I decided I didn't mind on the basis that local gossip can still generate sales.

Despite short notice – three days to be precise – and therefore only limited advertising, between noon and 4pm on the Sunday I had six potential buyers look around.

Obviously, precautions had to be taken with regard to security. Friends helped out and I removed valuables, personal items and keys. Asking interested parties to pre-register with the agent also prevents people wandering in off the street.

Overall, I thought it was a day well spent but as for the results? A second viewing was requested by one potential buyer – I wait with interest.

Land Rover team has a two-day tough trek

A TEAM from Barretts Land Rover, Ashford, followed some of the world's most adventurous athletes by joining a gruelling competition based upon Land Rover's global G4 Challenge – G4 Trek.

They went to the Land Rover Experience Centre near Ashford to take on teams from other UK dealerships and Barretts Land Rover dealer principal Mark Nicholas said: "The event was a fantastic team-building opportunity and a chance for staff to prove the depth of their product and wider automotive knowledge before sleeping under canvas during the two-day event."

A grand final will be held this weekend.

Small diesels gather favour in used market

USED diesel supermini values have rocketed, with premiums over equivalent petrol models doubling in some cases.

According to market watchers at the trade 'bible', Glass's Guide, two and three-year old diesel examples of best sellers like the Ford Fiesta (pictured) and Peugeot 206, for instance, command £500 more than petrol rivals now when the margin was just £200 a year ago.

The trend is attributed not only to economy, but also to increasing diesel refinement at this end of the market.

Chrysler's retro clout confounds the critics

CRITICS of Chrysler's retro 300C have been contradicted by the executive car's solid secondhand values after two years on the UK market.

A CAP motor trade guide spokesman said: "A two-year-old diesel Chrysler 300C with 30,000 miles on the clock is worth an impressive 67 per cent of the £25,750 it cost when new. In contrast, a BMW 525D of a similar age that cost £31,115 in 2005 is currently worth £19,300 – that's 62 per cent retained value."

NEW LOOK: The Jaguar XK Coupe may leave the traditionalists choking in its wake, but the style changes should keep the brand in the spotlight

Revolution by innovation ousts Jaguar tradition

LISTENING to old guard customers clamouring for tradition got Jaguar into a right old mess.

The marque had been pandering to a vociferous minority that was dying out, instead of looking after the ever-changing dynamic business class that brought Jaguar to power in the 50s and 60s, when innovation was its mantra not tradition.

Fortunately, as Jag seems set to change hands again – Ford is in talks with Indian buyers – innovation is back in vogue and the pivotal model will be next year's XF replacement for the very retro S-Type saloon.

But history may recall that change began with the latest XK Coupe and Convertible models.

We tested a Coupe and, as if to underline change, our car was bright red with the optional alloy-look dashboard rather than 'traditional' wood.

Its sharper lines are a nod to the future too, though there is the briefest backward glance – an oval grille, as worn by the famous D and E-Type sports models.

Apart from that, this car is 'New Jaguar' with distinctive vents on the wings and an aluminium body some 25 per cent lighter than rivals like the equally svelte Mercedes SL and lumpier BMW 6-Series.

This adds to excellent cornering for this muscular-yet-smooth riding car and allows it to sprint to 60 in less than six seconds, and average around 25mpg – almost environmentally-friendly for this market sector.

But that's in 'standard' 300bhp 4.2-litre V8 form as tested here. There is also a loony supercharged 420bhp XKR, but who needs that when the 'cooking version' drives and sounds so good – the V8 delivers the right sound without being intrusive.

The auto gearbox and manual selection via the steering wheel paddles is creamy too, and there are some nice touches inside: push-button starter, classy seats – though the rear ones are useless for carrying even the smallest kids – plus a decent boot for this class of car.

Yes, it would be great if the XK proved to be the moment that innovation rather than tradition launched a Jaguar revival.

USED CAR ROUND-UP: OUR PICK FROM A KEY SECTOR

ALTERNATIVE FAMILY HATCHBACKS

SALES competition on the UK car market is toughest in the family hatchback sector, dominated by big names such as the consistent number one, the Ford Focus and its arch rivals, the Vauxhall Astra and VW Golf. But the sheer demand in this close-fought sector means there are many other strong and attractive alternatives such as the diverse trio we have chosen here: one Spaniard with German underpinnings, a Japanese contender with a 'Made in Britain' stamp and a French contestant with lots of flair plus flexibility.

SEAT LEON

THIS Spanish spin-off from the previous generation VW Golf is a more likeable car with sleeker styling and a better chassis set-up. The wide nose has an aggressive and sporty look while the five-door body is practical and space efficient. Choice ranges from well-specified entry models to frugal yet lively diesels, right up to the brilliant Cupra R hot hatch. Above all, it is excellent value as a used buy, now that it has been superseded by an all-new version.

PEUGEOT 307

FAMILY hatchbacks have been a Peugeot mainstay for several generations, but the 307 was a more arresting and imposing car than its predecessors. It comes in various body styles: three and five-door hatch, MPV-style SW and estate alternatives and even the sleek Coupe Cabriolet. Engine options include Peugeot's legendary turbo-diesels. With the newly-arrived 308 replacement now appearing in showrooms, a deal on a late-registration 307 could be excellent value.

HONDA CIVIC

FUTURISTIC looks for the latest Civic have made the previous car look very staid – with the notable exception of the Type-R hot hatch version. But the dramatic change has driven values down for the older line-up, making them good value, especially the spacious five-door where the Civic's dash-mounted gearshift is even more effective at visually opening up the front passenger area. Prices are still not the cheapest, but Hondas don't let you down and are British-built at Swindon.

Section Manager, Transport

Morning shift: £21,600 - £27,800 & benefits
37.5 hours per week over 5 days · Aylesford

At Waitrose, we're in the process of opening a new Regional Distribution Centre here in Aylesford. We've got big plans for the centre to grow, embrace new technologies and eventually serve over 50 branches across the south of England.

If you can help to ensure the smooth running of our transport operation so that delivery targets are consistently met, we'll give you a lot in return. For a start, you'll work 37.5 hours per week over 5 days, so you'll have plenty of time to pursue your other interests. You'll also enjoy all the benefits of being a Partner in our business. As well as being part of an excellent profit-sharing scheme, which this year was equivalent to nine weeks' pay, you can look forward to discounts in Waitrose and John Lewis stores, pension scheme, free life assurance, subsidised educational, leisure and sporting activities, subsidised meals and five weeks' holiday after three years' service.

You'll lead a team of Transport Operators and Drivers, ensuring that the day-to-day operation runs as efficiently and cost-effectively as possible. This will involve maintaining high standards in areas such as service levels, road safety and workplace health & safety, as well as managing the site load plan and delivery schedule. Motivating and appraising your team will also be an important aspect of your role.

You might be in a similar transport/retail logistics role at the moment... or you might have the potential to step up to this level. Either way, you'll need good knowledge of the transport industry, a proactive and organised approach, a cool head under pressure and the ability to think on your feet. Good people management skills are essential in this role.

To apply, please send your CV, quoting reference SMT1, to Lorraine Robinson, Assistant Personnel Manager Supply Chain, Waitrose RDC, Beddow Way, Aylesford, Kent ME20 7AT.

Closing date: 23rd November 2007.

The Partnership is committed to providing equal opportunities for all regardless of differences such as gender, ethnic origin, disability, sexual orientation, age, social background, religion and belief.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Tribunals prove rather popular, and very costly

THE South East has the highest number of employment tribunal claims related to sex discrimination in the UK, according to figures published by employment relations firm Acas.

The South East had 2,255 claims in the year. London came second with 920.

The South East also saw the highest number of employment tribunal claims relating to working time with 1,113. Unfair dismissal was clearly the biggest workplace worry for South East workers, with 3,520 claims made.

The average cost of a claim is around £7,500. Acas says employers should call its helpline – 08457 474747 – for advice early in the process.

'We should be left to find our own solutions'

FRAZER Thompson, chairman of the Kent branch of the Institute of Directors has taken a swipe at the Prime Minister after last week's Queen's Speech, branding it not good for business.

Mr Thompson said the Government "shows it still thinks it can solve everything by legislation and regulation".

He continued: "The package addresses many of the right issues – especially skills, energy and transport.

"But too often proposals are about Government imposing top-down plans, rather than Government making it easier for businesses, individuals and communities to find the solutions that work for them."

Make sure you cash in on speedy payments

RECENT postal strikes, turbulence in the banking system and the financial strains of the holiday season make it more important than ever for Kent companies to keep an eye on cash flow, warns Business Link.

According to their research, late payment from customers is a major problem for nearly one in five (19 per cent) Kent companies.

Business Link advisor Ian Netherton said: "Money is no use to a business until it is in the bank – poor cash flow is the biggest single killer of otherwise viable businesses."

NATURAL BEAUTY: The tourism industry needs to protect and contribute to stunning countryside like this near Wye in order to encourage visitors and ensure a long-term future

Time to go green and win gold in tourism

■ BY JON COATES

BUSINESSES have been urged to cash in on the growing market in eco-friendly tourism.

Visitor attractions, hotels, bed and breakfasts, and working farms in Kent can save money through energy conservation, efficient water use, and cutting down on waste.

In doing so, they will boost their appeal to people looking to enjoy holidays, walks or leisure activities without spoiling our beautiful countryside.

The nationally-recognised Green Tourism Business Scheme provides a framework for companies to implement good environmental practice.

Grants and support are available to businesses in the leisure and tourism industry wanting to become more sustainable.

As part of the scheme, ventures are assessed every two years on 120 different measures of best practice.

There are three compulsory sections and companies achieving three successes in each of these get bronze awards, those meeting four get silver and those achieving five gold.

So far 17 businesses in Kent have gained

SUCCESS: Brenley Farm at Boughton – a silver award winner for its bed and breakfast on a working farm accreditation, with two getting gold awards, ten achieving silver and five bronze.

Alkham Court at South Alkham, near Dover, which offers bed and breakfast on a working farm, and Palace Farm Hostel at Doddington, near Faversham, which offers family rooms on a working farm, both achieved gold status.

Silver award winners include Kent Gliding Club at Challock, near Ashford, Tanner Farm at Marden, a caravan and camping park, and Great Field Farm at Stelling Minnis, near Canterbury, which offers bed and breakfast.

Two workshops have been organised by Kent Downs and Natural East Kent Sustainable Tourism Project to help business leaders understand the scheme and give advice on how to join it.

The day-long events will take place at Kent Showground in Detling, near Maidstone, on Wednesday, November 28, and at Minster Village Hall in Thanet, the day after.

Organisers hope to hold more workshops around the county at later dates.

Fran Warrington, head of Kent Tourism, said: "Businesses in our sector can no longer afford to ignore environmental issues.

"We have to work together so that Kent is well placed to take advantage of the growing green tourism market, as well as ensuring the sustainability of our own businesses and the sector as a whole."

For more details about the scheme and workshops call Sarah Loftus on 01303 815174.

City score yet another victory

CANTERBURY City maintained their ten-point lead at the top of the British Energy Kent County League with a 5-1 victory against SAGA Sports & Social.

City produced some of their best football of the season in the first half with some fluent movement which tore SAGA apart.

Justin Hodge headed the opener before striker Wayne Fittall grabbed his 13th and 14th goals of an impressive season before the break.

Royston Gough scored twice in the second half to make the game safe at Bridge Recreation Ground.

Dave Fairclough's side take an unbeaten record to Woodstock Park on Saturday.

Bay put on great Sporting display

HERNE Bay won their first game for seven matches with a morale-boosting 2-0 win at Sporting Bengal United on Saturday.

Defender Roy Guiver set the visitors on their way just after half-time with a lob before Aaron Firth bagged his ninth goal of the season to wrap the game up.

The win against the Kent Premier League's bottom side preserved Bay's unbeaten away record in the division this season. It was a good response to last Wednesday's 3-0 home defeat against Hythe Town and kept them in contention in tenth position.

Manager Jason Lillis said: "We did really well, the only slight criticism is we probably should have scored more goals because I thought we could have won by seven or eight."

Bay played Greenwich Borough in a League Cup tie last night.

lapses which cost us. We are encouraged by the performance but we need the points."

After their first win of the season against Bowdon the previous week, Canterbury carried the momentum into the match in Beeston.

Goals from Chris Bassano-Harper and Matt Harper shocked the home side as the visitors surged into a 2-0 lead after 11 minutes. Beeston pulled one back but Jess Dowsing restored the two-goal lead just after the break.

When Harper scored his second goal on 48 minutes to make it 4-2, Canterbury looked set to win their first away match of the season, but Beeston hit back decisively, netting the winner with four minutes remaining.

Stevens said: "We have been focusing on keeping the defence tight but we thought we had done enough.

"We are putting in some strong performances but you can't hide the fact that we've not got the points. There is enough confidence in the team."

The tough games continue for Canterbury as they play league leaders Reading on Saturday, who have won all eight league games this season.

It was also a disappointing weekend for the ladies' firsts, who lost back-to-back games.

With Mel Clewlow still not fully recovered from a knee injury and fellow internationals Hayley Brown and Natalie Seymour out with injury and illness respectively, the team struggled.

On Saturday they deserved to take something from their trip to Ipswich, but came away with a 2-0 defeat. A day later, a poor first half performance cost them against league leaders Bowdon Hightown at Polo Farm.

The visitors ran up a 4-0 lead before goals from Susannah Townsend and Mel Clewlow responded for the hosts, but it was too late.

On Saturday they host Clifton at Polo Farm.

CANTERBURY men's hockey team came within ten minutes of recording a morale-boosting victory against high-flying Beeston, but defensive lapses cost them dearly as they tumbled to defeat.

The visitors played well to build 2-0, 3-1 and 4-2 leads but lost their seventh match in eight to remain marooned second from bottom in the Premier Division.

Team manager David Stevens felt the game was his side's best performance of the season but was left frustrated with the familiar result.

He said: "I am very disappointed, for the vast majority of the game we were leading. Beeston are a good side, but in the first half I would say we outplayed them – we deserved the leads we had."

"We did well to score four goals against them, it was just a shame we couldn't see it through to the final whistle. They are one of the top teams this season, it was just a couple of concentration

ON A ROLL: Herne Bay prepared for Saturday's European game with two league victories last weekend

United seek Vic-tory in clash

HERNE Bay United warmed up for their big European League encounter with Spanish side C Pati Vic by recording two convincing domestic victories last weekend.

United beat the club's second team HBU CSL 11-0 on Saturday and followed it up with a 10-2 win against town rivals Herne Bay 24 hours later, to get their domestic campaign off to a great start.

Their first league fixture of the season against Middlesbrough was postponed last month after the north east club could not field a team, so United were a game behind the rest of the Premier League before this weekend's games.

ROLLER HOCKEY

The wins put them immediately in contention at the top of the division as they look to defend their title.

On Saturday, the club host C Pati Vic in their first home game of the prestigious European League. United lost the opening game in Group B 20-1 away to Portuguese giants FC Porto last month.

United captain Simon Hosking says the squad are looking forward to a great night at The Pier.

He said: "It will be a great atmosphere, I'm expecting a sell-out which always makes a difference to the players. It was good to get some match practice ahead of the match, although we didn't play amazingly well.

"The bigger teams don't like the small rinks so we think we could surprise Pati Vic. We definitely feel we can get back on track after the Porto game, the away games are always tough.

"I think we all see it as our last European League season because of the costs involved so we want to make an impression."

Only the top side from each four-team group qualifies for the semi-finals.

The game starts at The Pier at 8.30pm.

Oystermen lack cutting edge

NO CONSISTENCY: Town boss Marc Seager said his side lacked penetration

WHITSTABLE Town's patchy season continued as a lack of cutting edge cost them against a lightning-fast Dulwich Hamlet.

The Oystermen had the majority of possession and territory but were unable to convert the pressure into goals as the visitors took the points with two rapid counter-attacks.

Town boss Marc Seager was left ruing his side's lack of penetration.

He said: "It was a bit of an odd performance really, it was just the final third that lacked quality. Both their goals came from our mistakes.

"We had a lot of possession but it is no good if you have no end product. We put some great moves together, but once we got near their goal a poor pass or delivery would kill the move."

Dulwich led 1-0 at the break but had to wait until the 88th minute before wrapping up the points, as Whitstable committed men forward in search of an equaliser.

FOOTBALL

Whitstable Town 0 Dulwich Hamlet 2

The game came four days after the Oystermen beat Croydon Athletic 4-2 in one of their best displays of the season. For Seager the contrast between the two performances is becoming a familiar pattern.

He said: "That is the story of our season, we take one step forward and then two steps back. We are looking for consistency which we haven't got at the moment. We had a great game against Croydon, that's the level we need, but we didn't reach it.

"Next week we have a big game against Worthing, who are a very good side, but it wouldn't surprise me if we came away with three points. We need to put a run together and go four or five games unbeaten."

SPORT IN BRIEF

Spitfires' Twenty20 success gets ranking

KENT Spitfires' victory in this season's Twenty20 Cup has pushed the team into the top 30 of the Barcard Power World Rankings.

Kent are 26th in the list, which is headed by Australian side the Victorian Bushrangers. The top-ranked English side is the Leicestershire Foxes in fourth position.

Kent won the Twenty20 Cup for the first time in August. The win puts the Spitfires ahead of counties such as the Hampshire Hawks (34th) and the Sussex Sharks (36th).

Nine-try whirlwind left Whitstable with the Blues

WHITSTABLE succumbed to their heaviest defeat of the season as they went down 59-0 to Charlton Park on Saturday.

A nine-try blitz by the visitors inflicted one of the worst defeats on the Blues for several seasons.

A poor Blues team performance, combined with some intelligent rugby by the London side, saw them five tries adrift before half-time. The defeat leaves Whitstable seventh in London South East 4, ahead of their clash with league leaders Bognor on November 24.

Public driving range is officially opened

FORMER World Golf Trickshot champion Paul Barrington officially opened Canterbury Golf Club's public driving range on Saturday.

The 2005 champion put on an exhibition of trick shots and long drives to celebrate the opening at the 272-yard, par 71 course on the Littlebourne Road.

The range is open 7.30am-9pm weekdays and 7am-8.30pm weekends. Canterbury Golf Club are one of only three clubs in Kent awarded the GolfMark Award, which recognises junior and beginner-friendly golf facilities.

Crusaders to improve on league performance

KENT Crusaders are up against the Tees Valley Mohawks on Saturday, looking to improve on their league performances.

The Crusaders were without a game at the weekend, so should go into Mohawks game fresh and ready for the challenge.

They will have to do so without star player Robbie Parker, who is away in Australia, but will still hope to get a positive result after losing their last league encounter.

Tip-off at the Body and Mind Leisure Centre in Canterbury, is at 7.30pm.

NICE TRY: Wessels Wolmarans scores Canterbury's second try in their win over Luton, which helped the city side climb up to third in the league

A safe win puts Canterbury third

A LAST-minute Gert De Kock try sealed a valuable bonus point as Canterbury RFC moved up to third in National League 3 South.

Canterbury looked to be heading for a comfortable victory, but mistakes from the home side in the second half allowed Luton back into the game before De Kock put the game beyond doubt.

After the previous week's excellent win away at Lydney, Canterbury came into the match expecting to beat Luton, who had only won two games all season.

The home side dominated the first half and led 17-3 at the break. Miles Littlechild and

RUGBY

■ BY YOURCANTERBURY REPORTER

Canterbury 34 Luton 24

Wessels Wolmarans scored tries, with fly-half Sam Rasch adding the conversions and a penalty.

In the second period, Canterbury errors changed the game. De Kock scored the first of his two tries but Luton's backs took advantage of the mistakes to touch down three times to tie the game 24-24 with 10 minutes remaining.

Rasch calmed the nervous home fans with a penalty to edge Canterbury in front again, but they had to wait until the final seconds before De Kock made the game safe.

The bonus point took Canterbury above London Scottish, who lost at Ealing, into the top three.

Canterbury return to Gloucestershire to play Lydney this weekend, when they clash in the second round of the National Trophy.

The side's 36-20 win 11 days ago was only the second time Lydney had lost at home since March 2005, so Canterbury will be looking to record an unprecedented double.

The next game in the league is on November 24, away to the division's bottom side North Walsham.
